THE CORNELL BULLETIN

Vol. 1. No 30.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Amy Luce and Dorothy Winner returned yesterday from the Middle Western Conference of the Student Government Association. The meetings were very helpful and very interesting. The following is a list of colleges that sent delegates: Cornell College, Iowa; Washington University, St. Louis; University of Minnesota; University of Wisconsin; University of Illinois; University of Nebraska; University of Michigan; University of South Dakota; Ohio State University; Colorado College; De Pauw University; University of Missouri.

A mass meeting will be held some time during the month and the delegates will give a short report of the conference.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

There was no crew practice Tuesday because the lake was too low, but the girls will go out on the water to day.

Everybody is requested to pay their athletic dues. The dues are $50. They may be paid to G. Bates, R. Volcott, R. Starr, E. Ausman, S. Abbott, M. Grimes, H. Schrader, L. Lackman, If it is hard to give it to any of these girls the money may be left in Miss Canfield's office any day from 9:30 -12:30. These dues help pay for gymnasium equipment so that the more money there is the better the equipment that can be had.

Baseball finals will be held May 18- May 20 inclusive. Order of the games will be posted later. Baseball practice at 4:30. All out.
